Commander of U. S. S. Yankee Make Plea to Court.

Boston, Jan. 5.-That the finding of he court-martial which tried Commande Charles C. Marsh, U. S. N., the officer who was in charge of the Yankee when she ran aground in Buz ards Bay, be made one of "error of judgment" was the request of the accused's counsel in his argument before the court this morning. It was admitted that a mistake was made, but it was contended that it was justifiable under the circumstances conected with the grounding of the cruise on Hen and Chickens Shoal in a thick fog on the morning of September 23 last This afternoon the court began the preparation of its findings which, gether with the typewritten transcript of the evidence and the arguments, will be forwarded to Secretary of the Navy
